

She loves me with heart and soul

Including Every freckle and mole

She pours out so much love

U have to wear it like a glove

Even when i`m not around

Her love does me so surround

All the time she thinks of me

Even when i do not see

My heart feels much regret

That a soul like her`s i do neglect

She loves me when i`m totally mad

And even when i`m terribly sad

Even when i`m preoccupied

I know she loves me deep inside

A greater effort i need to make

Before a perfect heart i break

She must have been sent from above

Cos earth could not make so much love

She gives her all only to me

Even though such an ass i can be

With more effort i need to start

And take care of a precious heart

If my love for her were a seed

Its something i need to cherish and start to feed that big and strong it will grow and her cup too can over flow

So love can rain down from above so it too will fit her like a glove how did i get her perfect soul when i`m just a useless troll i`m sorry i`ve been so mean and my love for u has not been seen right from the word go what she see`s in me , i will never know i ly awake and watch her sleep

so in her soul i can peep so much love i`ve seen never so much love i`ve had for ever
