

I'm alone

Even though

I'm surrounded by all these tortured souls

Who can help me see?

That I can't believe

In everything I read

Here they collide

All the problems I provide

Are in total control of the life

I've been trying to hide

I'm stopped in traffic
free of my mind

Floating on a cloud

Up in the sky

It's the only way I can last

In this world that's going by so fast

It won't last forever

The feeling of being light as a feather
