

"Ask anything from me "I shall fulfill Almighty God asked me for realization of will
"in fact I don't deserve for it any more"

With no skill in me how can I explore? I replied

"You have all the potentials as fake poet how can you keep silence and remain quiet?
You tried very hard to unset many stalwarts
Without poetic skill you tried to be smart"

You have used talent for gaining ground
Nothing extra ordinary in you was seen or found
You knew your talent and its limitations
Still you have tried to prove it with citations

What else you want to score and achieve?
Do you believe in "earn respect and give?"
If not then ask whatever you wish or want
I may fulfill your demand and grant

"Make me poetess queen for one day"
I want to have complete rule and say
One or two days may sufficiently pave the way
Just help me out to find golden ray

I failed to achieve by dishonest mean
I was desperately trying or very keen
I took precaution that I was not involved in the scene
But in all games virtually I was in

"I appreciate all your qualities"
"That is how I have provided you the facilities"
You will wear poet's crown for two days
Thereafter find the convenient route or find the ways

But bear in mind and don't take it for granted
You are slur on poet's part and never wanted
Poetry level has been brought to lowest ebb

This can continue only on particular web

Many more are following in same way
Without talent they want to have sway
How can this be a healthy and fair game?
Where only tricks, fame and matters the name

This is mere example of what is actually going on

Artificial ratings with popular voting game is on

It may boost ranking and popularity drive

People may fall in trap and really believe

To reach on the top is not child's play

It has so much in it for readers to say

It may take years to build public opinion

Nobody can help even some influential union

You will have to carve out your own image

It doesn't matter how much is your age

You must have progressive views without any bondage

It must come on as if fine print on page

God also helps those who help themselves

Person who knows his limitation and behaves

Rest will follow its natural course

Nothing can stop him from reaching top of course
