

Don't forget to wish a person
It has no time or particular season Bury the differences and say a word
"Hello brother" I pray for you to lord

Bitterness may go in seconds
You need not go and find the words
It has its own magical spell Everything may turn into good or well

You just offer beautiful smile Wait not for reply and stay for while It will have its desirable effect Relation may improve with long spell and affect

What do we lose if we say simple "hello"
It is mere invitation or extension to allow forget the bad things and simple things to follow Great tradition teaches us to lie low

Good, thought must emerge from heart to flow Adversary may forget the past and try to slow No emission of poison but sweetness to grow cool reception may disappear with simple words of 'Hello'

it may wash the dirt of centuries happiness everywhere and no more worries opening of new chapter with new relation to emerge burying of differences with sincere urge

What do we gain by showing simple gesture?
It is opening of new chapter with bright future love and not the hatred to rule the scene
We should exchange pleasantries and must be very keen
