

GUARDIAN ANGEL PROTECT MADELEINE

by Warren Brown

Little Madeleine was stolen away

As she went to sleep that day.

We pray to her Guardian Angel above,

That she returns home to the ones she loves.

Little Madeleine so gentle and small,

Return to your parents today.

May your Guardian Angel protect you,

Through each and every passing day.

Little Madeleine needs to return home,

To be with her loving family.

Guardian Angel bring her home

To love, happiness and safety.

Little Madeleine is lost and scared

Return her to her family today,

To the love and comfort of a warm bed.

Guardian Angel of Power and Might,

Let Madeleine's sad parents

Tuck her into bed tonight.

We wish for a miracle and we pray,

That little Madeleine gets saved today.
